

Richmond Dive Club – March 2022 Business Meeting

March 8, 2022

Location - O'Toole's Restaurant and Pub Richmond, VA. and online via Zoom

Meeting commenced at 7:02 pm.

President's Comments

- Jim welcomed the members in attendance, both in person and via Zoom.
- Jim reminded members that now is the time to get your scuba gear serviced or updated prior to the dive season.

Dive Destinations

- Debi Moir just returned from 7 days in Turks and Caicos. Got in 15 dives and saw Humpback Whales.

Treasurer's Report

- Bank Balance as of February 28 (Reconciled) - $4,727.10
- New members since January = 10
 - o Individual members = 63. 48 are past due as of March 1.
 - o Family members = 31. 23 are past due as of March 1.
 - o Debi stated that there had been several additional members paid between March 1 and the meeting.
- It is time to renew. Dues are:
 - o Individual - $40.00
 - o Family - $60.00
 - o Corporate - $130.00
- Thanks to corporate sponsors!
 - o Tri-City Scuba
 - o Lake Phoenix
- And new sponsors for 2022!
 - o Brunswick Scuba
 - o Fluvanna Dive Center
 - o The Dive Shop
- Corporate memberships are geared towards local dive shops and facilities. The benefits are:
 - o Opportunity to promote the following at monthly meetings:
 - § New Products and specials
 - § Upcoming Trips (links can be presented)
 - § Upcoming Classes
 - § 2 Photos/Slides of events
 - § Recognition at each Monthly Meeting as a Corporate Partner
 - § Opportunity to present new gear and trips at the Christmas Party

General

- Jim discussed COVID and the impact on our ability to travel and dive. Offered the recommendation to “Get out, travel and dive!”

